The musical score is written for a voice and piano. The vocal line is in a high register, typical of Greek Chant, and features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes with various rests. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and single notes, often with a steady eighth-note bass line. The score is divided into six systems, each with a vocal staff and a piano staff. The lyrics are placed below the vocal staff, and the piano part is written in a standard staff with a treble clef. The overall style is simple and liturgical.
